FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – October 18, 2007

FAMILY VIOLENCE APPREHENSION SWEEP

Thursday, October 18th, Weld County Sheriff's Office worked with officers from Greeley Police Department, Evans Police Department, and State Parole officers, as well as officers across the country in an effort to arrest persons with outstanding family violence warrants. The 5th Annual Family Violence Apprehension Detail is coordinated by Clackamas County Sheriff's Office in Oregon and includes 144 sheriff's offices in numerous states. Weld County Sheriff's Office compiled a list of 15 people wanted on warrants based on domestic violence with charges such as harassment and assault for the 3 teams of officers to attempt to locate. The teams were able to locate and arrest eight out of the 15. October is designated as Domestic Violence Awareness month.
