On Thursday December 15th Investigators from the Weld County Sheriff's Office along with Federal agents executed a search warrant on Sun Health Spas 10763 Turner Blvd #2, which is located in the Del Camino area near I-25. This was the final part of an extensive long term investigation into possible interstate prostitution. The Weld County Sheriff's office became aware of this business through contacts with Federal agents several months ago and has been working to develop the case. As part of the investigation an undercover detective from the Weld County Sheriff's Office was sent into the business and was propositioned by a female employee of Sun Health Spas. As a result Yong Cho Gates the owner was arrested. She has been charge with keeping a place of prostitution, Colorado Revised statute 18-7-204. The female employee Ok Hui Yu who propositioned the detective was arrested for engaging in the act of prostitution, Colorado revised statute 18-7-201. Both persons were transported to the Weld County Jail and have posted bond and were released. Sun Health Spas located in the Del Camino area is the same Business that was mentioned in a News 4 story about prostitution that was aired prior to the conclusion of this investigation.
