FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – September 27, 2007

TWO ARRESTS MADE IN ARMED ROBBERY OF BARN STORE

Two arrests have been made in connection with the Barn Store armed robbery detailed in a previous press release. In that release photographs of the suspect and an unknown male were distributed. Investigators following up on a tip were able to identify one of the individuals in the photographs.

Jacob Irwin, 22 of Keenesburg, was arrested last night at his residence without incident. Irwin was booked into the Weld County Jail and charged with aggravated robbery, a class 3 felony. Irwin was also booked on a probation revocation and two warrants for failure to appear in unrelated cases.

Rachel Cogar, 29 of Keenesburg, was arrested today without incident in Westminster. Cogar was booked into the Weld County Jail on an outstanding warrant for aggravated robbery, a class 3 felony, menacing, and a probation violation. Bond on the aggravated robbery warrant was set at $100,000.
