The 19th Judicial District's Self-Represented Litigant Coordinators are on staff at the Weld County Combined Court Information Center to provide parties without attorneys FREE procedural information and assistance with forms. The staff can answer questions about forms, the legal system, and the legal process, but cannot provide legal advice. Public access computers are available for research and completing forms.

Here are just a few ways the Court Information Center can provide assistance to self-represented individuals:

We Can...

- Locate and Access Forms
- Look Up Orders
- Determine Which Form You May Need
- Check Your Case Status
- Assist in Completing Forms
- Check Forms For Completeness
- Notarize Forms

Self-Help Personnel are neutral information providers and will provide the same services and information to all parties in a case, if requested. In all cases, it is best to obtain the assistance of your own lawyer, especially if your case presents significant or complicated issues. If requested, Self-Help personnel will help you find community resources and services without recommending a specific lawyer or law firm.
